Jim Bush is an award-winning Artist and member of the Providence Art Club. His editorial cartoons appeared in the Providence Journal from 1994-2012, and are now found weekly in the Jamestown Press. His cartoons have also appeared nationally. In 2007, Jim converted a building in historic Downtown Warren into an art studio and gallery. Jim now focuses on Fine Art Painting, primarily acrylic and watercolor. His style continues to reflect his cartooning foundation, often displaying subjects in a lighthearted and off-beat way.

Artist chat with Q & A around 6:00

Ellen Nanni-Vargas is a mixed media artist working primarily in painting and drawing. Growing up in Little Compton, she spent most of her childhood barefoot on the beach. Her color palette alludes to iridescent tides and velvety gloaming skies. Much of her inspiration comes from these formative years getting lost in such an idyllic, secluded place. In her work, visceral dreams interlace with childhood toys; the fantastic and mundane intertwine into surreal dreamscapes. Ellen's work synthesizes elements of the natural landscape with personal symbols drawn from her inner world. Her compositions are constellations of memories, inspiration and delight.

Musical Performance by The Vox Hunters around 6:30 pm.

488 Main Street, Warren

Inspired by the Rising Seas Exhibit at IMAGO, students at Makers have been working on projects related to the sea. Their work (from artists ages 1 - 10) will be on display at Inkfish Books.

The Vox Hunters

Hailing from the great state of Rhode Island, Armand Aromin and Benedict Gagliardi are seekers and singers of old songs, cultivators of local music, and chronic multi-instrumentalists. They are touted as strong tradition-bearers in their generation, and their genuine affinity for the music is evident in the emotion they draw from it.

With a pair of oft-harmonizing voices tastefully garnished with fiddle, free-reeds, and tenor guitar, The Vox Hunters offer an all-natural connection to the living tradition of folk music. Vox Hunters will perform at Imago Gallery at 5:30 pm & The Gallery at 4 Market Street at 6:30 pm.

Sharks Come Cruisin'

Sharks Come Cruisin' plays an energetic mix of sea shanties and maritime music, keeping the themes of audience participation and celebration at the center of their music and live performances. SCC has played several festivals up and down the East Coast, from Florida to Maine and host the monthly PVD Shanty Sing in their hometown of Providence RI. Sharks Come Cruisin' will perform on the Town Hall steps from 6:00 - 8:00 pm.
